DAMAGE TO THE ROADS BY THE BIG STORM

WEAK SPOTS ON THE HIGHWAYS EXPOSED BY RUSHING TORRENTS.

The Kalia Bridge is Severely Tested But Stands the Strain—Drifting Scows are Saved.

The entire force of teams and men in the road department were out yesterday cleaning the streets of debris and silt that had collected in great quantities in places as a result of the heavy rains of the previous day. Many catch basins and ditches had to be cleaned out and thousands of yards of mud were carried away.

The storm demonstrated the utter deficiency in surface drainage in all parts of the city. Not one-fifth of the water was carried away by the drains. A great deal of the top dressing of streets newly graded was skinned off by the torrents and washed into the sea. The sustaining wall along the Nuuanu stream caved in at two or three places and will swell the bill for repairs by a few dollars.

On Miller street and Punchbowl the water kept the middle of the road and scooped out great gullies. These places will have the attention of the department at once. It also will mean other weak spots. In this way the storm will benefit the city in emphasizing the need of improvements in neglected localities.

Yesterday workmen were placed at all culverts and bridges made dangerous by the storm and last night red lights of warning were posted wherever danger menaced late travelers.

Marion Campbell, after a tour of inspection, said that all the new stone and concrete bridges and culverts recently put in by the department stood the test of the flood in good shape and that he had not found a case of overflowing or damage. The loose dirt in the sewer ditches was washed out in a number of places. The losses occasioned by drainage to sewers will not be very heavy on the contractors. The drainage done to the roads will not cost more than $500 to repair.

The false work on the center pier of the Kalia bridge was all washed away, but no injury was done to the concrete work. Superintendent Campbell recommends that for a few days no heavy loads should be hauled over this bridge.

He also desires that reports be sent to him by any one discovering places in the reef in need of immediate attention.

A notice by the name of Naone was reported drawn by the flood Tuesday afternoon on the Honolulu plantation. He was in the pit of one of the pumps at work. The pit filled so quickly that he failed to escape.

Two railroad scows broke from their moorings on Tuesday night near the Railroad wharf and yesterday morning were discovered on the reef near the wreck of the Edward O'Brien. They were kedge aft by a gang of Japs under the direction of Mate Jennings of the Mikahala and hauled back to their places. Neither of them is thought to be seriously damaged.

IS NOW DEPOSITORY FOR THE GOVERNMENT FUNDS

New National Bank Receives Communication From Washington to Make Disbursements.

The First National Bank of Hawaii, at Honolulu, has been made the depository of all United States moneys in the Territory of Hawaii, excepting the customs receipts, which it is unlawful to deposit excepting in the treasury at Washington or in a sub-treasury. The bank is also further and specially designated for the reception, safe keeping and disbursement according to law of funds advanced to any disbursing officer of the government.

Hereafter the receipts of the post-office and internal revenue collector's office will be deposited with the new bank, and the disbursements for the purpose of the army and navy will be made through the bank. The following letter received yesterday is self-explanatory:

Treasury Department, Office of the Secretary, Division of Public Moneys, Washington, Oct. 1, 1900.
President First National Bank of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii:—
Sir—In compliance with the request contained in your letter of the 5th ultimo, and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by Sections 5152 and 3620 Revised Statutes of the United States, the First National Bank of Hawaii, at Honolulu, Hawaii, is hereby designated a depository of public moneys, except receipts from customs, and specially designated for the redemption, safe keeping and disbursement according to law of funds advanced to any disbursing officer of the government.

The security is fixed for the present at $100,000 United States bonds, which you will forward to the treasurer of the United States in this city.

Respectfully,
O. L. SPAULDING,

Mr. and Mrs. Halstead will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends here and will be gladly welcomed by many acquaintances in the rainy city.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation of the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by it. It is for sale by Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Territory of Hawaii.

The members of Company A. N. G. H. are requested to assemble at the drill shed at 2 o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral of their comrade, Private Klamm. See notice.
